

Managing Osteoporosis and Decreasing Risk of Falls in Long Term Care

Wednesday November 21st, 2012

Presented by:

Algis Jovaisas, MD, FRCPC

Assistant Professor of Medicine, University of Ottawa
Division of Rheumatology, University of Ottawa

At:

Ramada Inn & Conference Centre

805 Brookdale Avenue, Cornwall Tel: (613) 933-8000

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the burden of illness in LTC patients with osteoporosis
- Review the screening and diagnosis of osteoporosis and fracture risk in LTC setting
- Discuss the prevalence, causes, and ways to decrease risk of falls in LTC residents
- Examine treatment and management options for osteoporosis

Program Agenda:

6:00 PM – Registration
6:15 PM – Buffet Dinner
7:00 PM – Presentation

Please RSVP by Wednesday, November 14th to Leslie by fax at 613-933-0568 or by e-mail at leslie@medicalartspharmacy.ca

If you have questions please call Josee Lemay at 613-933-0670

In accordance with Rx&D guidelines, this program is intended for healthcare professionals only.
This program has been provided by a sponsorship from Amgen.

